At the Pahalgam Sindoor Meeting, SILF decides to assist the families impacted by the Pahalgam incident.

SILF members honored the departed victims at the August 16 meeting and agreed to help the impacted families in any way they could.

On August 16, the Society of Indian Law Firms (SILF) met in Pahalgam to denounce the April 22 terror assault in Pahalgam and to celebrate the Indian military's successful completion of Operation Sindoor.

Senior Vice President Alok Kumar, SILF President Dr. Lalit Bhasin, Vice Presidents Sudhir Kumar, Shweta Bharti, and Mumtaz Bhalla, as well as Joint General Secretaries Yakesh Anand, Amitabh Chaturvedi, Treasurer Pratap Shankar, and Advocate Aditya Bhasin, were present at the meeting.

The three terrorists engaged in the Pahalgam attack were killed in the joint 'Operation Mahadev' of the Indian Army, CRPF, and the Jammu and Kashmir Police, which was praised by the SILF leadership and the Indian government.

The relatives of the tourists who were killed in the horrific attack on defenseless civilians received condolences from the members.

The members honored the departed victims and decided to help the impacted families in whatever way they could.

The members also assured Prime Minister Narendra Modi that SILF will continue to support its initiatives in the resolution that was voted at the meeting.
